UNAUTHORIZED/ ILLEGAL CONSTRUCTIONS
Singh Shri Prabhunath

Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government has issued comprehensive instructions with the aim of ensuring effective and systematic action against all types of unauthorized/illegal constructions in Delhi;

(b) if so, the details of the complaints received against the Block Development Officer (South Delhi) and his staff for not discharging their duties and action taken against them so far;

(c) the details of the structures removed by the BDO (South Delhi) during the last three years from Gram Sabha land etc. and the quantum of money collected as cost of demolition; and

(d) the details of the structures identified so far for removal from Gram Sabha land during the current year?

Answer

MINISTER OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD)

(a): The Govt. has been, from time to time, impressing upon all local bodies/developmental agencies to take strict and effective action against unauthorized/illegal constructions in Delhi in accordance with the law.

(b): Govt. of NCT of Delhi has reported that four complaints were received out of which one was against the then BDO (South) while three were against officials of BDO (South). The BDO (South) and one official have been suspended and the cases of other two officials whose complaints were regarding illegal boring have been referred to the Anti Corruption Branch, Delhi and these officials have been transferred from the office of the Deputy Commissioner (South).

(c): The details of structures removed by BDO (South) from the Gram Sabha land during the last three years are given in Annexure-I.. No money has been collected as cost of demolition.

(d): The details of structures identified and demolished from Gram Sabha land during the current year are given in Annexure-II.

Annexures referred to in reply to Lok Sabha USQ No.3308 for 21.12.2004.
